OVER-NIGHT FEDERAL WIRELESS

To the Advertiser

The London authorities are taking a growingly serious view of both the political and industrial outlook in Ireland. The Times says conditions in Dublin suggest the horrors of actual warfare. The stability and security of the whole British nation, it declares, are threatened by the obvious sympathy between the English and Irish working classes. The wife of the chancellor of the exchequer, whom every one has hitherto regarded as a homely person, little concerned with politics, said:

"Some people are trying to incite civil war in Ireland, and others are asking us to compromise. I cannot see at all why we should, and cannot see why the Liberals should wish to enter any conference. They should pass the measures as they stand. The Liberals are not going to give in now that the promised land is in sight. We are going to carry these measures. We have no cabinet secrets. But do not think the government will give in. They will go on and carry them through. They are bound to keep their pledges to the people. If they did not, Welsh people would have no faith in the Liberal leaders."

Six hundred delegates are meeting in the Belfast headquarters to discuss the provisional government scheme, and to name officers to serve under the Ulster Unionist Council. They will include Sir Edward Carson and Lord Abercorn, Kilmorey and Londonderry.

The old town hall at Belfast is beginning to resemble a war office, with wireless on the roof and guards outside.

Riotous scenes today attended the arrest of Annie Kenney, in London, an official of the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant wing of the suffragettes. She was making a speech.

Suffragettes in the audience then themselves upon the police in an effort to rescue their leader, but were driven back. At the first sight of uniform the women began to "bo" and hurl verbal threats at the "bobbies."

"Get out! Get out!" cried the women. "We are gathered here in the cause of liberty for a moment."

began Miss Kenney, when a policeman sprang to the platform and laid his hand on her shoulder.

Pandemonium broke in the audience. Scores tried to fight their way to the stage, while others tore up seats and hurled whatever missiles they could lay hands on at the policemen. Miss Kenney was dragged and carried to a taxi and hurried away to Holloway Jail. During the struggle Dulcie E. West, another militant who had been recently freed from prison, attempted to enter the hall, and was besieged and jailed.

Friends of President Wilson are planning to "prod" the three members of the senate banking and currency committee who are believed to be responsible for delaying action on the currency bill in the senate.

According to statements made on high authority these three senators are Hitchcock of Nebraska, O'Gorman of New York and Reid of Missouri.

The bankers of the nation are overwhelmingly in favor of the currency measure, according to President Wilson. Thousands of letters have come to the White House voicing approval.

Princess Victoria Louise, only daughter of Kaiser Wilhelm, and bride of Prince Ernest August of Cumberland, is to reign as a queen after all. It was learned today from a state source that the dispute between the houses of Guelph and Hohenzollern over the claims to the Hanoverian throne has been compromised. Prince Ernest and his bride will make solemn entry into Brunswick before Christmas. One of the wedding gifts was the elevation of the Duchy of Brunswick to a kingdom, which Ernest was to rule.

The Congressional committee appointed to investigate the situation as regards the general election in Mexico scheduled for October 26 has decided to present a report recommending that the election be postponed.

General Huerta is bitterly opposed to any plan for postponement. The crisis which has been imminent between the administration and the chamber of deputies is expected to be reached as soon as there is no doubt that the deputies will adopt the committee's report.

Governor Sulzer told his counsel today that he insisted on testifying before the impeachment court. The lawyers objected to it, but the governor replied that he intended to endorse the statement of his secretary, Louis Sarack, that if he had been "crooked" he could have taken $500,000 easily.

It was reported today that Boss Murphy of Tammany also wanted to testify.

NAVAL COMMITTEE IS INVITED TO HONOLULU

As the result of action taken at a meeting of the board of directors of the Merchants' Association yesterday afternoon, Delegate Kalamianole, upon the request of the directors, has sent a cable to the naval committee of the house of representatives, now making a tour of the United States, inviting that body to visit in Honolulu. The question of this invitation is one which has been before local civic and commercial bodies for some time, the merchants being the first to act upon it.

The question was broached by Acting President George G. Guild. A motion to extend the invitation was heartily approved, being passed unanimously. Every existing or proposed naval station on the Pacific Coast is receiving a visit from the committee, following which those on the Gulf and the Atlantic Coast will complete the itinerary. Chambers of Commerce for all the principal cities, as well as other civic and commercial organizations extended invitations to the committee similar to that of the local Merchants' Association. The naval committee is composed of Congressmen Padgett (chairman), Talbot of Maryland, Hobson, Estopinal, Riordan, Tribble, Witherspoon, Hensley, Buchanan, of Illinois, Bathrick, Lee of Pennsylvania, Williams, Mitchell, Gerry, Butler, Roberts of Massachusetts, Browning, Farr, Britten, Kelley of Michigan, and Stephens of California.

row promises to be one of the most exciting struggles in history," says Thos. J. Lynch. "Naturally, I believe the honors will be with McGraw's men when the final game is ended. The New York team has shown a wonderful consistency and it has a wonderful pitching staff, a valuable adjunct in a short series."

"McGraw is one of the most wonderful managers the game has ever known."

Harry Kempt of Kansas, known as the "tramp poet," who at one time eloped with Meta Sinclair, wife of Upton Sinclair, was today sentenced to 21 days as a stowaway at Southampton, England. When his time is up he will be deported. Kempt came to England on the liner Oceanic, because, as he explained, "of an irresistible desire to visit London to try to find a publisher for his poems."

"I predict victory for the Athletics," says Ban Johnson, "not because I am president of the American League. It is my firm opinion that the Philadelphia club will win, but they will not do so without a fight."

"New York showed us in the series with Boston last year that they are fighters and thoroughly game."

Timothy Woodrow, one of the political leaders of New York, former lieutenant governor of the state, who has been dangerously ill for several days suffering from a nervous collapse, suffered a relapse last night. His condition last night was reported more serious than at any time.

Announcement was made at Constantinople today that permanent peace will be arranged shortly between Turkey and Greece by treaty. This announcement was evidently intended to allay rumors that an allied Bulgarian-Turk army will take the field against the Greeks and Servians.

Baseball fans were in great force at the New York weather bureau today, when the forecast for the first world's series game was issued. "Unsettled weather Tuesday; strong to brisk northeast winds," is the report that greeted them.

The United States transport Logan sailed from San Francisco for Manila via Honolulu and Guam at noon today. It is carrying a full list of passengers and six hundred troops.
